SEVERE HEMORRHOIDS

Sores, and Itching Eczema—Doctor Thought an Operation Necessary
—Cuticura's Efficacy Proven.

"I am now 80 years old, and three years ago I was taken with an attack of piles (hemorrhoids), bleeding and protruding. The doctor said the only help for me was to go to a hospital and be operated on. I tried several remedies for months but did not get much help. During this time sores appeared which changed to a terrible itching eczema. Then I began to use Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, injecting a quantity of Cuticura Ointment with a Cuticura Suppository Syringe. It took a month of this treatment to get me in a fairly healthy state and then I treated myself once a day for three months and, after that, once or twice a week. The treatments I tried took a lot of money, and it is fortunate that I used Cuticura. J. H. Henderson, Hopkinton, N. Y., Apr. 26, 1907."

HENEY SHOT IN COURT ROOM

WOULD-BE-ASSASSIN AN EX-CON. VICT DISCHARGED FROM JURY PANEL.

IN RUEF BRIBERY CASE

DRAMATIC CLIMAX IN SAN FRANCISCO GRAFT AND BRIBERY CASES.

San Francisco, Cal.—The San Francisco bribery graft cases had a dramatic climax late Friday when Assistant District Attorney Francis Heney, who has been in charge of the prosecution during its tortuous course of two years, was shot and seriously wounded in the crowded courtroom by Morris Haas, an ex-convict. The shooting occurred during a brief recess in the third trial of Abraham Ruef on a charge of bribery.

Heney is now resting easily in the Lane hospital, and the physicians say his wound is not fatal. Haas is in the city prison.

Heney, as he lay on the operating table, said: "I will live to prosecute both Haas and Ruef."

The assassin is a saloonkeeper, who was drawn upon the jury panel in the second trial of Ruef and who, after having been temporarily passed by both sides, was exposed by Heney as an ex-convict.

Heney dramatically produced a photograph of Haas taken at San Quentin penitentiary in convict's garb, with cropped head and his number across his breast.

Haas collapsed in court, admitting he had been a convict and was immediately discharged from the jury.

After the shooting Friday Haas said: "Heney exposed my record in court and ruined my business. I am even with him now and I do not care what happens to me."

Examiner Changes Its Tune.

San Francisco, Cal.—For more than a year the Examiner has kept up a bitter attack, not only upon Heney, but upon Spreckels, Burns, Langdon and all others connected with the prosecution. Cartoons have been used almost constantly to belittle the graft fighters. For many months the Examiner has run this line on its editorial page:

"It is 755 days since the prosecution began and no one is in the penitentiary yet."

The figures were changed daily. Saturday for the first time this line was missing. A two-column wide editorial said this of the man the paper has tried in every way to belittle:

"The attempt to kill Assistant District Attorney Francis J. Heney by an ex-convict at the moment when Heney had brought Ruef to the prison door and seemed to be in the very act of thrusting the arch-grafter into the place where he belongs, is one of the most regrettable occurrences ever witnessed in San Francisco or any other city. The speed with which punishment is meted out to the man who struck down Heney will blaze on the world with the speed with which punishment shall be meted out to the grafters."

Will Call Special Session.

Washington.—That a special session of the Sixty-first Congress will be called soon after the 4th of March to take up the matter of tariff revision became known positively Sunday when William H. Taft, president-elect, after spending the day at the White House as the guest of President Roosevelt, stated that he intended to call the special session to meet as soon after his inauguration as would be reasonable.

COURT UPHOLDS BALLOT ORDER

HIGHEST COLORADO TRIBUNAL CONFIRMS DECISION OF SECRETARY OF STATE.

IN REJECTING TICKETS

JUSTICES STEELE AND BAILEY DISSENT FROM OPINION BY JUSTICE GABBERT.

Denver.—The formal opinion of the Supreme Court in the pre-election case involving the validity of the "Anti Guggenheim" and "Business" tickets was announced Wednesday. It supports the order made before the election in which the court sustained Timothy O'Connor, secretary of state, in his refusal to place these tickets on the official ballot; reviews a history of the two cases in which the points were determined, and then presents the reasons why the action was taken. The opinion was written by Justice Gabbert, and in conclusion it recites:

"To briefly recapitulate, the principal questions determined, as presented by the record, are:

"First, that nominees named by certificates of the individuals do not become such unless they accept the nomination so tendered.

"None of the nominees for presidential electors, congress or state offices accepted, therefore the persons named by respondents as candidates for the above offices could not appear upon the official ballot under the names selected for the respective tickets involved.

"Second—That persons having joined in making a nomination by certificates as individuals are precluded from nominating the same nominees in the same way under another name for the same office, to be voted for at the same election.

"The testimony establishes without dispute that the certificates nominating candidates for the five legislative districts embracing the city and county of Denver and for senatorial districts numbers 1 and 22, under the respective names selected by respondents contained duplicate names of signers for the same identical offices in such numbers that none of these certificates, when the duplicate names were eliminated, contained the requisite number required by law, therefore these certificates were invalid.

"Third—That certificates by individuals making nominations cannot be amended by the addition of further signatures after the time for filing such certificates with the proper officer has expired.

"The attempt to remedy the defect in the certificates in question by the tender of additional signatures was not made until after the time for making nominations by individuals had expired; consequently those additional signatures could not be received or considered.

"Fourth—That persons named as nominees in a certificate by individuals have no personal interest in such nominations unless they have accepted.

"Justices Helm, Goddard and Maxwell never accepted the nomination attempted to be made by respondents, therefore they had no more personal interest therein than any other citizen, or than if the certificates had never been filed."

The opinion was concurred in by the entire court with the exception of Chief Justice Steele and Justice Bailey.

Like a Dream.

A bubble of air in the blood, a drop of water in the brain, and a man is out of gear, his machine falls to pieces, his thought vanishes, the world disappears from him like a dream at morning. On what a spider-thread is hung our individual existence. Fragility, appearance, nothingness. If it were not for our powers of self-detraction and forgetfulness, all the fairy world which surrounds and brands us would seem to us but a broken specter in the darkness—an empty appearance, a fleeting hallucination. Appeared—disappeared—there is the whole history of a man, or of a world, or of an infusoria.—Amiel.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A SURGICAL OPERATION

If there is any one thing that a woman dreads more than another it is a surgical operation.

We can state without fear of a contradiction that there are hundreds, yes, thousands, of operations performed upon women in our hospitals which are entirely unnecessary and many have been avoided by

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

For proof of this statement read the following letters.

Mrs. Barbara Base, of Kingman, Kansas, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For eight years I suffered from the most severe form of female troubles and was told that an operation was my only hope of recovery. I wrote Mrs. Pinkham for advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has saved my life and made me a well woman."

Mrs. Arthur R. House, of Church Road, Moorestown, N. J., writes:

"I feel it is my duty to let people know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female troubles, and last March my physician decided that an operation was necessary. My husband objected, and urged me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to-day I am well and strong."
